

PDF Travel Form data collection

Working model demonstration
Mike Howarth

The user sequence

- User finds form on MDX website
- Website page warns latest Acrobat Reader is needed and download site given.
- User opens forms.
- User saves or fills in and saves.
 - All fields are required and warnings given
- User submit prints and sends data in one click.
- Thank you message appears.

The user sequence: demonstration model

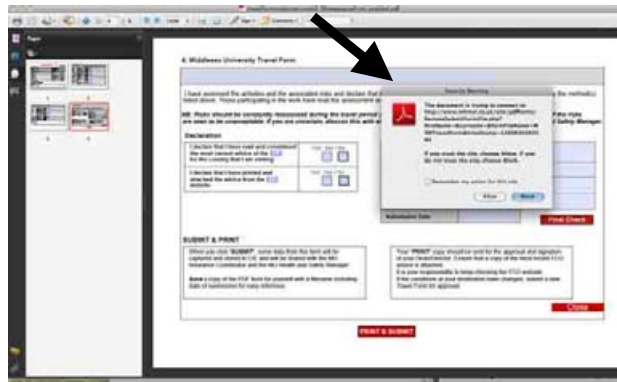

1: open the form: <http://www.mhmv.co.uk/site/pdfprojectb.html>

2: see the pop up instructions and fill in

3: On submit, click allow on warning

4: see Thank you temporary file. Click close

5: see data here

<http://www.mhmv.com/site/pdfforms/MDXTravelForm>

The designer sequence

- Warning: In Acrobat Pro, (not the Reader) the designers sees a different sequence
- Designer finds form on MDX website
- Website page warns latest Acrobat Reader is needed and download site given.
- Designer opens forms.
- Designer saves or fills in and saves.
 - All fields are required and warnings given
- Allow download warning appears
- Data upload page shows
- Thank you message shown at current page size and offers Thank you window can be saved.

